TODAY’S INTRODUCTION
-Welcome to United Israel World Union, this is our Sabbath morning scripture study coming to you live from the United Israel Center in Saint Francisville, Louisiana. Many of you are in your own place today, alone, Shabbat Shalom and thank you for joining us this morning. We need one another to help us go through what the world is going through today. I pray that all of you and the ones that you care for remain healthy today and throughout the coronavirus.
-We are currently in a new teaching series called, “Prophet” where I want to talk about the subject, the people, and the message of that mysterious group of men and women that are biblically referred to as the Prophet. We just completed a 12-part series called “Torah”. The primary purpose of that study was to show and teach a method whereby you can determine within the first five books of the bible, Genesis, Exodus, Leviticus, Numbers, and Deuteronomy, the hand of Moses. What is it that Moses wrote? This series was important because it gives us the essential tools to recognize apart from tradition and our beliefs, the voice of Moses in the five books. If we were able to determine the things that Moses said, then our goal in this study on the Prophet is to determine what the mouth of YHVH said from the hands, narrators, characters, people, and voices within the bible.
-The reason that we have prophets and prophecy is that at Horeb / Sinai YHVH spoke in an audible voice, in a day of assembly to an entire group made up of the people of Israel and a mixed multitude who joined with them. There at the foot of Sinai they saw, heard and had an awe-inspiring fearful experience and they were terrified. The people made a request that they not hear again the voice of YHVH their God or see his great fire anymore lest they die.
-Exo 20: 18 Now when all the people saw the thunder and the flashes of lightning and the sound of the trumpet and the mountain smoking, the people were afraid and trembled, and they stood far off 19 and said to Moses, "You speak to us, and we will listen; but do not let Elohim speak to us, lest we die."

-One of the key things at Sinai was that the people asked for someone who would be between them and the creator. Moses, you go listen to what God says, you come back and tell us, and we will listen, but they didn’t listen to this day. The promise was that if another would go to God and bring back his message, they would listen and do it. The biggest problem in the world today is that God’s message through his prophets is still not heeded.

-Each of the prophets get their own vision of certain key points in the study of the last days, and much of the material deals with the time at hand. All of the prophets are addressing things that are going on around them, yet at other times they look forward to the days to come. In our study, we will talk about the tribes and various aspects of God that the prophets reveal. These prophets encountered God in a way that most humans never do and never will. We get some great insight into various subject matters and into the nature of God himself. As we focus on the prophets and prophecy, I want to also focus on the words of YHVH, the words of God within the word of God, dealing mainly with the text of the Hebrew Scriptures. We are searching the scriptures for those life giving, flaming inspired words of the Hebrew prophets.

-Deu 8: 1 "The whole commandment that I command you today you shall be careful to do, that you may live and multiply, and go in and possess the land that YHVH swore to give to your fathers. 2 And you shall remember the whole way that YHVH your God has led you these forty years in the wilderness, that he might humble you, testing you to know what was in your heart, whether you would keep his commandments or not. 3 And he humbled you and let you hunger and fed you with manna, which you did not know, nor did your fathers know, that he might make you know that man does not live by bread alone, but man lives by every word that comes from the mouth of YHVH.

-Please join us as we journey through our teaching series called, “Prophet”.

UIWU ANNOUNCEMENT:
The Moses Scroll book release date of 8 March 2021 was purposely chosen. Moses Shapira died on 8 March 1884, and as far as we know, the last public sighting of his scroll was 8 March 1889. It seemed apropos to share the scroll anew with the world on that same fateful day.

TEACHING NOTES
-Today we are in the 13th class of our series called “Prophet” and we are continuing with our message from last week. Last week’s class was on the Gospel of Isaiah where we focused on the term gospel or good news and on the one who brings the good news or brings good tidings and sometimes this figure was singular, plural, masculine, and/or feminine.

-Psa 68: 11 The Lord gives the word; the women who announce the news are a great host:

-The Lord gives the word; great is the company of those who bare the tidings. Adonai gives a speech or a word, the female bearers of good news are a great host. Whether we are talking about a singular figure or a group of men or women, the task of this one that we are speaking about is to herald good tidings or bring good news. What is the gospel message of Isaiah? What is the good news that the messenger(s) will say? Last week we covered four primary text and today we will move into the details that surround these clues and about how they put us on the gospel message of Isaiah.

-Isa 40: 9 Go on up to a high mountain, O Zion, herald of good news; lift up your voice with strength, O Jerusalem, herald of good news; lift it up, fear not; say to the cities of Judah, "Behold your God!"

-Isa 41: 27 I was the first to say to Zion, "Behold, here they are!" and I give to Jerusalem a herald of good news.

-Isa 52: 7 How beautiful upon the mountains are the feet of him who brings good news, who publishes peace, who brings good news of happiness, who publishes salvation, who says to Zion, "Your God reigns."

-Isa 61: 1 The Spirit of Adonai YHVH is upon me, because YHVH has anointed me to bring good news to the poor; he has sent me to bind up the brokenhearted, to proclaim liberty to the captives, and the opening of the prison to those who are bound;

-It’s from these four passages and associated texts that we can begin to sketch out the framework of a gospel. The framework of the message of the messenger of the good news. We can learn the gospel of Isaiah by studying this.

-Isa 40: 9 Go on up to a high mountain, O Zion, herald of good news; lift up your voice with strength, O Jerusalem, herald of good news; lift it up, fear not; say to the cities of Judah, "Behold your God!" 10 Behold, Adonai YHVH comes with might, and his arm rules for him; behold, his reward is with him, and his recompense before him. 11 He will tend his flock like a shepherd; he will gather the lambs in his arms; he will carry them in his bosom, and gently lead those that are with young.

-Here we can begin to discern the gospel message of Isaiah. The word “behold” is used three times and it’s directed to the one who is to bring good tidings. Behold your God. Behold, Adonai YHVH comes in strength. Behold, his wages are with him and his work before him, and then it’s defined and has to do with a people. The message has to do with the true and living God, the coming of that true Elohim, and the work of that true Elohim with a special people.

-Isa 52: 7 How beautiful upon the mountains are the feet of him who brings good news, who publishes peace, who brings good news of happiness, who publishes salvation, who says to Zion, "Your God reigns." 8 The voice of your watchmen--they lift up their voice; together they sing for joy; for eye to eye they see the return of YHVH to Zion. 9 Break forth together into singing, you waste places of Jerusalem, for YHVH has comforted his people; he has redeemed Jerusalem. 10 YHVH has bore his holy arm before the eyes of all the nations, and all the ends of the earth shall see the salvation of our God.
-We meet first with the messenger here in Isaiah 52:7. Just like in Isaiah 40, it says of the one who brings good news, they are going to do this upon a high mountain. Here, it talks about this one and the lovely feet upon the mountains, there’s a connection here.

-Nah 1: 15 Behold, upon the mountains, the feet of him who brings good news, who publishes peace! Keep your feasts, O Judah; fulfill your vows, for never again shall the worthless pass through you; he is utterly cut off.

-Zec 14: 1 Behold, a day is coming for the LORD, when the spoil taken from you will be divided in your midst. 2 For I will gather all the nations against Jerusalem to battle, and the city shall be taken and the houses plundered and the women raped. Half of the city shall go out into exile, but the rest of the people shall not be cut off from the city. 3 Then the LORD will go out and fight against those nations as when he fights on a day of battle.

4 On that day his feet shall stand on the Mount of Olives that lies before Jerusalem on the east, and the Mount of Olives shall be split in two from east to west by a very wide valley, so that one half of the Mount shall move northward, and the other half southward.

-Could this be the one we’re talking about who is bearing the good news? Who is it that’s coming? Whose feet will be standing upon the Mount of Olives, upon a high mountain? Is the mountain that’s talked about from which the bearer of good tidings announces to Zion in Jerusalem, is it the Mount of Olives? This one in Isaiah 52 causes to be heard, Shalom. To cause something to be heard, you announce the good news. Causes to be heard, salvation.

-This one announces peace and salvation and says to Zion, your God reigns! We are beginning to see the gospel message of Isaiah come together. Go up to a high mountain you who bare good news, you who announce peace, you who announce salvation. Go up and lift up your voice and don’t be afraid. The news is all about the true Elohim, the message that the true Elohim is coming, and his work is before him. In some passages we have a messenger that goes before, but we also keep seeing the coming of your God. Your God is coming! This messenger that’s going to go before God has an important job. Prepare the way for the one who is coming. There is one who causes to be heard, peace and salvation. Your God reigns!

-When we say, your God reigns, we are talking about the kingdom of God. The kingdom of God has one king, YHVH. The idea is that this one announces the kingdom of God. Our gospel message is coming together. Behold your God! Your God Reigns! There’s a causing to be heard of Shalom, peace and salvation. The first part of the message is to declare, behold your God, the true God.

-Jer 10: 10 But YHVH is the true God; he is the living God and the everlasting King. At his wrath the earth quakes, and the nations cannot endure his indignation.

-YHVH is the true and living God. The announcement that goes forth is about the true and living Elohim, contrasted with all of the other Elohim in the minds, beliefs, and practices of the people, then, now, and in the future. Here we will focus on the true Elohim according to Isaiah’s gospel. Isaiah covers quite a bit about this one God that the announcement goes out about.

-Isa 43: 10 "You are my witnesses," declares YHVH, "and my servant whom I have chosen, that you may know and believe me and understand that I am he. Before me no god was formed, nor shall there be any after me. 11 I, I am YHVH, and besides me there is no savior. 12 I declared and saved and proclaimed, when there was no strange god among you; and you are my witnesses," declares the LORD, "and I am God. 13 Also henceforth I am he; there is none who can deliver from my hand; I work, and who can turn it back?

-YHVH is talking to a group, here the servant is not an individual, but a group. You are my witnesses, this is plural, and my servant whom I have chosen. He’s addressing a group who are witnessing the oneness of God. Witnesses are being called to witness to the fact that there is no other God. This is about the oneness of God.

-Isa 44: 6 Thus says YHVH, the King of Israel and his Redeemer, YHVH of hosts: "I am the first and I am the last; besides me there is no god. 7 Who is like me? Let him proclaim it. Let him declare and set it before me, since I appointed an ancient people. Let them declare what is to come, and what will happen. 8 Fear not, nor be afraid; have I not told you from of old and declared it? And you are my witnesses! Is there a God besides me? There is no Rock; I know not any."

-The announcement is about the one God, but there’s a central group that’s to witness to the oneness of the true and living God. Call it the oneness witnesses. The eternal people have a task to do relative to the unveiling of the true gospel message about the true Elohim, about the reign of that one God and about the work of that one God that involves the eternal people.

-Isa 45: 5 I am YHVH, and there is no other, besides me there is no God; I equip you, though you do not know me, 6 that people may know, from the rising of the sun and from the west, that there is none besides me; I am YHVH, and there is no other. 7 I form light and create darkness; I make well-being and create calamity; I am YHVH, who does all these things.

-Isa 45: 14 'Surely God is in you, and there is no other, no god besides him."

-Isa 45: 18 For thus says YHVH, who created the heavens (he is God!), who formed the earth and made it (he established it; he did not create it empty, he formed it to be inhabited!): "I am YHVH, and there is no other.

-The one God, there is no other. This message goes back to the Torah, to Deuteronomy where God is talking about the Exodus and the salvation of his people.

-Deu 4: 35 To you it was shown, that you might know that YHVH is God; there is no other besides him.

-The whole reason for the redemption was to show them that point. The core message of the gospel of Isaiah goes back to the Torah.

-Deu 4: 39 know therefore today, and lay it to your heart, that YHVH is God in heaven above and on the earth beneath; there is no other.

-The central confession of biblical faith is called the Shema, which means to hear. The messenger of the gospel causes it to be heard. This is part of the message and that needs to be heard.

-Deu 6: 4 "Hear, O Israel: YHVH our God, YHVH is one. 5 You shall love YHVH your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your might. 6 And these words that I command you today shall be on your heart.

-The central gospel message of the Hebrew Bible is about the one true Elohim, contrasted with all the others who are not gods at all. In Isaiah, YHVH say, is there another God, I know not any. Yet throughout time, people have worshipped countless deities who aren’t real.

-1Kin 8: 60 that all the peoples of the earth may know that YHVH is God; there is no other.
-The point is, God is not just for the people of Israel, the goal is that the message is universal.

-Mic 4: 1 It shall come to pass in the latter days that the mountain of the house of YHVH shall be established as the highest of the mountains, and it shall be lifted up above the hills; and peoples shall flow to it, 2 and many nations shall come, and say: "Come, let us go up to the mountain of YHVH, to the house of the God of Jacob, that he may teach us his ways and that we may walk in his paths." For out of Zion shall go forth the law, and the word of YHVH from Jerusalem.

-Mic 4: 5 For all the peoples walk each in the name of its god, but we will walk in the name of YHVH our God forever and ever.

-This is interesting, but it will not always be the case. Ultimately it will be like 1 Kings 8:60, that all the peoples of the earth may know that YHVH is God.

-Zec 14: 9 And YHVH will be king over all the earth. On that day YHVH will be one and his name one.

-Ultimately, one God will be known globally, and nations will send delegates to Jerusalem to worship the one God. This is the message about the one God and that one God is coming. How literally are we to take this?

-Isa 35: 1 The wilderness and the dry land shall be glad; the desert shall rejoice and blossom like the crocus; 2 it shall blossom abundantly and rejoice with joy and singing. The glory of Lebanon shall be given to it, the majesty of Carmel and Sharon. They shall see the glory of YHVH, the majesty of our God.

-This passage deals with the wilderness, the desert, and the dry land. A man showed up at Biblical Tamar Park and taught me a song based upon Isaiah 35:1 & 6 and it’s singing of this miraculous rebirth of the desert with streams flowing into what was a dry and desolate place. What is it that causes this rejuvenation, that rebirth in the desert? It’s because the redemption begins here and there’s a highway here. The term desert could be any place all over the world, but if you say Aravah you mean this rift valley that we are in right now, the lowest spot on earth, down by the Dead Sea. The man who taught Ross this song at biblical Tamar was insistent that the redemption begins right here. It’s all going to start when the desert opens up and springs forth.

-Singing with Yehuda!; December 13, 2016: https://unitedisrael.org/singing-with-yehuda/

-Isa 35: 3 Strengthen the weak hands, and make firm the feeble knees. 4 Say to those who have an anxious heart, "Be strong; fear not! Behold, your God will come with vengeance, with the recompense of God. (Isaiah 40+) He will come and save you." 5 Then the eyes of the blind shall be opened (Isaiah 61), and the ears of the deaf unstopped (Isaiah 28); 6 then shall the lame man leap like a deer, and the tongue of the mute sing for joy. For waters break forth in the wilderness, and streams in the desert (In the desert is the Aravah); 7 the burning sand shall become a pool, and the thirsty ground springs of water; in the haunt of jackals, where they lie down, the grass shall become reeds and rushes. 8 And a highway shall be there, and it shall be called the Way of Holiness; the unclean shall not pass over it. It shall belong to those who walk on the way; even if they are fools, they shall not go astray.

-Isa 40: 3 A voice cries: "In the wilderness prepare the way of YHVH; make straight in the desert a highway for our God.

-Isa 40: 10 Behold, Adonai YHVH comes with might, and his arm rules for him; behold, his reward is with him, and his recompense before him.
- Isa 57: 14 And it shall be said, "Build up, build up, prepare the way, remove every obstruction from my people's way."

- Isa 62: 10 Go through, go through the gates; prepare the way for the people; build up, build up the highway; clear it of stones; lift up a signal over the peoples.

- We have YHVH’s return and there’s a highway and it has to do with preparing the way and preparing the people. Lift up the stumbling blocks.

- Isa 66: 15 "For behold, YHVH will come in fire, and his chariots like the whirlwind, to render his anger in fury, and his rebuke with flames of fire. (Where is YHVH coming from?)

- Isa 26: 21 For behold, YHVH is coming out from his place to punish the inhabitants of the earth for their iniquity, and the earth will disclose the blood shed on it, and will no more cover its slain. (YHVH will come out of his place)

- Mic 1: 3 For behold, YHVH is coming out of his place, and will come down and tread upon the high places of the earth. 4 And the mountains will melt under him, and the valleys will split open, like wax before the fire, like waters poured down a steep place. (Where is his place?)

- Hos 5: 15 I will return again to my place, until they acknowledge their guilt and seek my face, and in their distress earnestly seek me.

- Here is YHVH saying that he’s going to return to his place, so where is his place? Hosea 5 deals with the hiding of the face. Things have reached such a state of degradation that there’s no remedy. I’m going to go away to my place until they seek my face.

- Deu 33: 2 He said, "YHVH came from Sinai and dawned from Seir upon us; he shone forth from Mount Paran; he came from the ten thousands of holy ones, with flaming fire at his right hand. (This puts the place of YHVH in the deserts, Sinai, Mount Paran.)

- Jdg 5: 4 "YHVH, when you went out from Seir, when you marched from the region of Edom, the earth trembled and the heavens dropped, yes, the clouds dropped water. 5 The mountains quaked before YHVH, even Sinai before YHVH, the God of Israel.

- This is similar in language and description, Sinai, deserts, Edom, Seir. People debate this, but we are talking in the southern parts.

- Hab 3: 3 God came from Teman, and the Holy One from Mount Paran. Selah His splendor covered the heavens, and the earth was full of his praise. 4 His brightness was like the light; rays flashed from his hand; and there he veiled his power. 5 Before him went pestilence, and plague followed at his heels. (These are all descriptions of the coming of God.)

- Psa 68: 7 O God, when you went out before your people, when you marched through the wilderness, Selah 8 the earth quaked, the heavens poured down rain, before God, the One of Sinai, before God, the God of Israel.

- Psa 78: 40 How often they rebelled against him in the wilderness and grieved him in the desert!

- Psa 106: 14 But they had a wanton craving in the wilderness, and put God to the test in the desert;

- Psa 107: 4 Some wandered in desert wastes, finding no way to a city to dwell in;

- This is a particular area / place it’s talking about in which the coming of God will come from his place, and his place puts us in these wilderness regions.
1Sam 23: 19 Then the Ziphites went up to Saul at Gibeah, saying, "Is not David hiding among us in the strongholds at Horesh, on the hill of Hachilah, which is south of Jeshimon?"

David is hiding in a desert place called Jeshimon and was probably inspired to write some psalms when he was there in that desert place.

1Sam 23: 24 And they arose and went to Ziph ahead of Saul. Now David and his men were in the wilderness of Maon, in the Arabah to the south of Jeshimon.

1Sam 26: 1 Then the Ziphites came to Saul at Gibeah, saying, "Is not David hiding himself on the hill of Hachilah, which is on the east of Jeshimon?"

1Sam 26: 3 And Saul encamped on the hill of Hachilah, which is beside the road on the east of Jeshimon. But David remained in the wilderness. When he saw that Saul came after him into the wilderness, Jeshimon is part of this desert region and it’s in the Aravah. If you’ve ever been to the Aravah on a cool night as the wind blows through the palms, it’s quite moving. All these prophetic pictures that go into the gospel describe this region as being significant in the redemption, the desert region, the Aravah.

Psa 68: 4 Sing to God, sing praises to his name; lift up a song to him who rides through the deserts; his name is YHVH ; exult before him!

Sing to Elohim, a song, sing, lift up to him who rides in the Aravot, let the righteous be glad, let them rejoice before God, let them joyfully exalt. Sing to God, sing praises to his name, extol him who rides upon the clouds. Yah is his name and rejoice before him. It’s talking about a God that rides on the Aravot, in these plains if you will. God is moving in the Aravah. When the redemption begins, YHVH is coming out of his place and the Second Coming will be in similar ways to the first coming of YHVH.

YHVH is coming should be preached every weekend around the world. The message is that the true and living God is coming out of his place and the redemption begins from that place, from the regions of the Aravot, from the desert, and from the dry places. As he comes, miracles will take place, streams will flow, and life will be restored.

You are his witnesses. The gospel message of Isaiah is about the true and living God. The coming of that God from his place. The redemption begins in the wilderness and is why these apocalyptic groups like the Qumran group in the desert. They are there to be witnesses. Why are they there, read Isaiah 40 and 35. The idea is that the redemption begins in the Aravot, but the gospel message of Isaiah has to do with the one God who is coming. As Amos the prophet once said, I now say to the world, be prepared to meet your God. Next week we’ll continue in our study of the prophetic messages. Have a beautiful week. I hope that many of you will find the Moses Scroll, and read it and that you’ll write a nice review.

Shabbat Shalom, Shavua Tov, have a beautiful week and God bless you.
